This year during the "Silence of the Body/ Milczace Cialo" the entire attention will be focused on the creative work of the actor of silence. The Workshops, for those participating, will occur only as a first part of the Presentation for the Public on May 30th and 31st 2015 in Mazovia Institute of Culture in Warsaw.

The workshop participants will work, for an hour, on stage in front of the public with Stefan Niedzialkowski and the dancer RUI Ishihara. After a short intermission, the premier of the performance of The Mime Art Theater titled "Milczacy Aktor Podczas Pracy/ Actor of Silence at Work" will begin. The performance is a specific invitation for the public to the Studio in which is happening the unique work on the body, as not entirely discovered instrument and mirror. That mirror allows the actor to express his or her thoughts, emotional stages, and human experiences. As always, the performance is created especially for this occasion by Stefan Niedzialkowski. The exercises, rehearsals, and fragments of the performances will be created in direct contact with the viewer. After the premier of the performance there will be a meeting between the public, the artists, and the workshop participants. This year, Stefan Niedzialkowski invited Rui Ishihara, Japanese dancer, to teach a workshop and to present the essence of his art form.

Important!

During the events fragments of a documentary film, which is currently being created in collaboration between Stefan Niedzialkowski and Andrzej Michalowski, will be made. The film will be about the work of the Actor of Silence- Creator. The work on the film began in February 2015 and will continue thorough out the year. Before each evening's event, on May 30th and 31st, the public as well as those participating in the workshops will be asked to give permission to be filmed.

RUI ISHIHARA

Dancer and choreographer. Deeply inspired by Tatsumi Hijikata and Kazuo Ohno, the founders of butoh dance. He started his career in 2000, first as a contemporary dancer. Then, he has found the direction of his artistic path through meetings with such dancers as Kazuo Ohno, Min Tanaka, Simone Forti (postmodern dance). In 2006, he began his life project "Kanademaï", a dance pilgrimage. He gives offering dance in variety of natural and artificial locations, and it appeared, so far, in Italy, Ireland, France, Germany, Poland, as well as in Japan. Since then, he has started collaboration with various artists and musicians in Europe. In 2009, he settled in Warsaw, where he continues his research on dance and body. In recent years, while working as a dancer and as a choreographer, he started career in different fields of arts, among others, in acting and in singing, which broaden his perspective in his research.

„Dance tells us what Life is about- we are the Life itself Dance is always present here, there, everywhere.

I want do became a Dance- in one moment the countless resonances echo and flash all together in a spacetime- they became a dance here and now, the dance of existences meeting in harmony”
